Her Story

Terrie Ann Bullock-Morgan was born September 14, 1951, in San Rafael, California to proud parents, William Lawrence Bullock, Sr. and Clara Bullock. She was the youngest of six children, Bertha, William, Jr., Charles, James and Peggy Bullock.

Terrie attended Marin City and Richardson Bay Elementary Schools, and graduated from Tamalpais High School in 1970. She also attended College of Marin and Sonoma State University.

Terrie had compassion for all people and had a special heart for children and youth. She spearheaded many activities at Bethsaida/Cornerstone Community Church Of God in Christ, Marin City, California. She was a Primary Class Sunday School Teacher, Secretary for Sunday School Department, assisted the Sunshine Band President, Purity Class President, and choir member.

Additionally, she worked in the San Francisco District and Northern California State Purity Class, under Bishop B. R. Stewart, Mother Devers, and Mother Georgette Smith. One of the joys Terrie loved greatly in her role as Purity Class President was training and mentoring the youth in not only spiritual development, but in life skills training. She was known to be a great encourager to youth and always reinforced to their parents how special their children were to the Lord. Whenever parents were feeling overwhelmed, she sweetly told them they could make it, God heard their prayers and they could do all things through Christ who strengthened them.

From 1987 to 1993, Terrie was employed with the Marin County Fire Department, Woodacre, California, as Senior Secretary. For the last nine years she was employed as Human Relations Analyst at Kaiser Hospital's Corporate Office, Oakland, California.

The mother of two children, Kianga and Bishlam Bullock, Terrie married James Morgan July 27, 1991, and two children were added to this union, Erinn and James Lawrence Morgan. Terrie loved gardening and cooking for her family. She was a creative artist and an outstanding seamstress.

The Morgans joined Glad Tidings Church of God In Christ, under the pastorate of Bishop J. W. Macklin, Hayward, California, where she served as a faithful minister's wife.

Terrie was preceded in death by her father, Elder William Bullock and her mother Clara Bullock. She was also preceded in death by one brother, James Bullock; two sisters, Bertha Lee Tate and Peggy Ann Bullock.

Terrie Ann Morgan went home to be with the Lord on Monday, March 19, 2012. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, James Morgan, four children, Kianga Bullock, Rohnert Park, California, Bishlam Bullock (Amy), San Rafael, California, Erinn and James Lawrence Morgan, Pinole, California, two brothers, William L. Bullock, Jr., Augusta, Georgia, Charles Allen Bullock (Ione), Sacramento, California, granddaughter, Nikeya Bullock, Knoxville, Tennessee, four step-children, Vaughn A. Muhammad, Atlanta, Georgia, Damita Knowles, Havelock, North Carolina, Brandon A. Morgan, Atlanta, Georgia, David C. Muhammad, Atlanta Georgia, seven grandchildren, god-daughter, Kahaya Adams, Marin City, California, her church family, along with a host of relatives and friends.
